

County-Wide Calling

After January 1, 1996, any telephone call made between two points in the same county in Tennessee shall be classified as toll-free and shall not be billed to any customer. Foreign exchanges, remote call-forwarding, and calls made from cellular telephones are excluded from the county-wide calling statute.

Source: Tennessee Code Annotated 65-21-114